

Fleurie Reine des Grès

History and terroir:

Fleurie is one of the best known cru du Beaujolais, called by many "the Queen of Beaujolais". The soil consists of rose coloured granite which adds intense floral and fruity aromas with a distinct elegance and finesse. Reine des Grès comes from a specific site within the cru offering an exceptional wine.

Tasting:

Fleurie is one of the best known cru du Beaujolais, called by many "the Queen of Beaujolais". The soil consists of rose coloured granite which adds intense floral and fruity aromas with a distinct elegance and finesse. Reine des Grès comes from a specific site within the cru offering an exceptional wine. We recommend tasting this wine at 13-14 °C.